Lot Drawing Determines Marijuana Applicants

Ten residents vying to operate a recreational marijuana establishment in Unincorporated Adams County in 2015 were selected today from a pool of more than 1,600 applicants. Complying with the regulations proposed by the county's Planning & Development Department and adopted by the Board of County Commissioners, tickets corresponding with a resident's application were selected from four establishment categories; Testing (1), Manufacturing (3), Grow Operation (3) and Retail Store (3).

People interested in pursuing one of these opportunities were restricted to applying for only one of the designated establishments. The accounting firm Eide Bailly provided independent oversight of the lot drawing process. Here are the results of today's lot drawing:
